

THE WEBB SISTERS

The Webb Sisters will sing their first time at Valley Fest this year, but they are no stranger to the area. Born and raised in Jasper, TN in the neighboring county of Marion, this trio has been singing gospel music for quite some time. Deborah Reed, Chanda Roberson, and Karen Campbell, the three Webb sisters, have a love for southern gospel music and enjoy singing a combination of favorite Southern Gospel tunes, some old-time favorites, as well as some original songs. They have been given the opportunity to sing at many churches and benefits in the Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama area and look forward to singing at Valley Fest.
